

Bretnside Knowledge Organiser - RE

Year 3	Topic: What does Sikhism teach us about selfless service?	National curriculum: Exploring and understanding the major religions of the world.
--------	--	---

What I should already know:

I know what Sikhism is and where it came from.
 I know who Guru Nanak was.
 I know what the Guru Granth Sahib is.

What I should know at the end of the topic:

I can explain why selfless service (sewa) is such a key belief within Sikhism.

I can identify the five Ks and why are they so important to many Sikhs.

I can understand and discuss how serving food in a gurdwara or mobile langar and demonstrates the act of selfless service .

I can explain where and how Sikhs worship.

Key understanding/ Learning opportunities:

Watch videos of people on pilgrimage and examine images.
 To discuss ways people can be selfless.
 To understand what Sikhism is and what they believe.

Diagrams:

Vocabulary

Sikh	A person that follows the Sikh religion.
Sikhism	A monolithic religion founded in the 15th century .
Guru	An influencer or spiritual leader.
Guru Nanak	The founder of Sikhism.
Guru Granth Sahib	A collection of hymns and writings of Sikh scholars.
Gurdwara	The place of worship of a Sikh.
Sewa	Part of a Sikh's daily life, meaning selfless service.