ALL ABOUT ME

I was born in Spain and raised in London. I have been living in London for almost all my life... since 1988!! I am from a lovely place called Galicia in the north of Spain where I go back to at least twice a year.

I have a teaching degree and have been teaching for over 17 years...since 2008. And... guess what? I continue to learn something new each day!

I also hold a special Diploma which specialises me in teaching foreign languages and English as a Foreign language.

I am married and have two sons, the youngest is 10 and the eldest 15.

I am very excited to see you all in September for a new Academic year where we will learn a lot and will definitely have fun!

INTERESTING FACT ABOUT ME

I became a teacher because I want to help children grow and I want to make a difference in shaping young people's lives. I love children who come to class every day with a good attitude, wanting to learn and knowing that to learn we have to make mistakes! I learn a lot from you every single day.
